Cap. 10:11 “Act” means the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism Act;

“beneficial ownership” means ownership by a natural person or persons who ultimately exercise individually or jointly voting rights representing at least twenty-five per cent of the total shares, or otherwise have ownership rights of a legal entity; or ownership by a natural person or persons who ultimately owns or controls a customer or the person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted and includes those persons who exercise ultimate effective control over a legal person or arrangement;

“body corporate” means a legal or juridical person or arrangement, including all legal persons and legal arrangements, under the Act or any other law;

Cap. 89:01 “Commercial Registrar” means the Registrar responsible for Companies under the Companies Act;

“Convention” means the United Nations Convention Against Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances signed at Vienna on the 20th day of December, 1988;

“convention State” means a foreign state which is a party to the Convention;

“forfeited property” means any property which is the subject of a relevant agreement, being property, which falls within any of the following categories-

(a) any property which is forfeited property pursuant to a forfeiture order or a pecuniary penalty order made under the Act;

(b) any property which, pursuant to a request by a convention State is the subject of-

(i) foreign forfeiture order or a foreign pecuniary penalty order registered in the Supreme Court and having effect, pursuant to the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act; or

Cap. 15:05

(ii) a forfeiture order or a pecuniary penalty order made under the Act and enforced under the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act;

(c) any property located in a convention State-

(i) in relation to which a request is made to that state, under the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, for the enforcement of a forfeiture order or pecuniary penalty order made under the Act; or

Cap. 15:05

(ii) which is forfeited in a convention State under the laws of that state;

“Minister” means the Minister with responsibility for Home Affairs;

“non-profit organisation” means a legal person or legal arrangement or organisation that primarily engages in raising or disbursing funds for purposes such as charitable, religious, cultural, educational, social or fraternal purposes, or for the carrying out of other types of “good works” and includes, where the context so applies, societies registered under the Friendly Societies Act, not-for profit companies, registered under the Companies Act and arrangements expressed under a trust deed registered at the Deeds Registry;

Cap. 36:04

Cap. 89:01

“person” refers to any person and includes body corporates, legal persons and legal arrangements;

“prompt” means as soon as possible but no later than three to five days;

“Registrar” means the Guyana Compliance Commission, the Registrar of Friendly Societies, the Chief Cooperatives and Development Officer, the Commercial Registrar or the Deeds Registrar, applying mutatis mutandis;

“relevant agreement” means an agreement made between Guyana and a convention State, providing for the sharing of forfeited property;

Prompt access to basic and beneficial ownership information.

6. The Registrars shall ensure that the Financial Intelligence Unit and relevant competent authorities under the Act have access to basic and beneficial ownership information on body corporates in a prompt manner.

Suspicious Transaction Reports to be filed in any country affected by a suspicious wire transfer.

7. Where a reporting entity controls both the originator and beneficiary side of a wire transfer, that reporting entity shall-

- (a) take into account all the information from both originator and beneficiary sides in order to determine whether a suspicious transaction report has to be filed;
- (b) file a suspicious transaction report in any country affected by the suspicious wire transfer; and
- (c) make any or all relevant transaction information available to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

Confidentiality.

8. (1) Any person who obtains information in any form as a result of their connection with a relevant competent authority shall not disclose that information to any person except so far as it is required or permitted under the Act, any regulations made under the Act or other written law

(2) Any person who wilfully discloses information to any person in contravention of subsection (1) shall be subject to dismissal from the relevant competent authority and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding four years.

Application to convention States.

9. (1) Where a relevant agreement has been made with a convention State, the Minister may, by order, declare that the provisions of these Regulations in relation to-

Cap. 15:05

(a) section 34 of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act; or

(b) section 76 of the Act, shall apply in respect of that state subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications as the Minister, having due regard to the terms of such agreement, may deem expedient to specify in the order for the purpose of implementing such terms.

Attorney General to certify property for sharing.

10. (1) Forfeited property may be shared with a convention State only if the Attorney-General certifies in writing that it is proper for the property to be so shared.
